

Basic Information

This article describes the Basic information section of the member profile.

This part of your profile includes important information about you, such as your personal data and contact information. You should complete this before you complete your Letter of Introduction, as some information is filled in from these fields.

It is extremely important that all details of your profile are complete and correct since this information will be used:

- As the basis for your Letter of Introduction (LOI)
- By Servas members searching for hosts
- By potential hosts to confirm your identity and view your LOI information

Reminder: Your screen may look different from the figures here; the view may vary, depending on the device you use (e.g. computer, laptop, phone) or your browser (e.g. Chrome, Safari, etc.).

As always, if you have any difficulties, email your Coordinator, then to the country administrator at your.country@servas.org. (e.g. Canada@servas.org). Alternately, use the <Contact Us> link at the bottom of the Servas Online home page to contact an administrator.

With ServasOnline, registration can be done in one of two ways, depending on the decision made by your country administrator:

Individual-based - Each adult Servas member creates a separate account even if there is more than one Servas member living in the household. Each member will have a complete profile.

Household-based – A single record in ServasOnline will contain the information for all household members (only relevant for households with more than one member).

To find out how your country is managing household based records, refer to your local administrator. They will instruct you how to add details for additional household members.
